Call for Judicial Republican Convention.

The republicans of the forty-second judicial district of the state of Indiana will meet in delegate convention at Paoli, Ind., on Saturday September 27th, 1902, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a republican candidate for prosecuting attorney of said district.

The apportionment of delegates will be the same as that applied to the last republican state convention. Jackson county will be entitled to fourteen delegates and fourteen alternates; Orange county will be entitled to eleven delegates and eleven alternates; Washington county will be entitled to eleven delegates and eleven alternates, making the total number of delegates thirty-six; necessary to a choice, nineteen. By order of

W. H. BURKLEY, Chairman Jackson County R. C. C.
J. P. THROOP, Chairman Orange County R. C. C.
LEWIS DENNIS, Chairman Washington County R. C. C.

Convention Dates.

The republican county convention will be held at the court house in Brownstown on Saturday, September 20, 1902, at 11 o'clock a. m.

The judicial convention will be held at Paoli on Saturday, September 27, 1902, at 2 o'clock p. m.

W. H. BURKLEY, Chf. J. C. R. C. &
E. A. REMY, Secretary.

The republicans of Jackson county will nominate a county ticket at Brownstown Saturday, Hon. Dan Storms, nominee for secretary of state, will be present and make a speech.

The prosperous condition of the people makes it possible for them to enjoy a few days at the state fair, or at the Cincinnati fall festival, or other places of interest and entertainment.

The rapidly at which the state debt is being paid off by the republican state administration is very pleasing to the taxpayers. They will keep the debt paying party in power by again electing the republican ticket.

SEYMOUR bids fair to be an electric railway center. It is already a steam railway center and the people are ready to help along the movements to make it an electric railway center. The proposed line from Columbus to French Lick is already taking shape and will certainly be built. Work on the preliminary survey will probably be begun within the next few weeks. That line will be a very valuable one for Seymour as well as for other towns along the way and the country through which it will pass. It is also proposed to construct a line south from here through Scottsburg and on south connecting with the Jeffersonville, New Albany and Sellersburg Rapid Transit. Let them come.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

O. H. Montgomery, district chairman, went to Indianapolis today to attend a meeting of the state central committee.

Hear Hon. M. L. Clawson at Society Hall Saturday night. He is a popular speaker and will instruct and entertain you. This will be the opening speech of the campaign in Seymour.

Make your arrangements to attend the Republican county convention at Brownstown next Saturday. Hon. Dan Storms, candidate for secretary of state and a superior speaker is down for a speech.

JACKSON county republicans will open the campaign next Saturday by nominating a strong ticket. Besides this Hon. Dan Storms will address the convention at Brownstown and in the evening of sameday Hon. M. L. Clawson, of Indianapolis, will make the opening speech at Seymour.

OBITUARY.

William Claycamp died at his home near Surprise Saturday evening, September 13, 1902. The funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at the U. H. church, of which he was a member, by Rev. Jacob White, after which in the presence of a multitude of people, his body was laid to rest in the new cemetery. Mr. Claycamp was born in Hamilton county, Ohio, near Cincinnati, May 30, 1841, and in boyhood moved with his father to this state. At eighteen he united with the church and earnestly sought, in life so early, to follow the steps of his divine master. In the civil war he held the office of sergeant. He received an honorable discharge in 1865 and in September of the same year was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Nelson. Three daughters were born to them, but the two youngest died in early childhood. In February 1882 the wife was called away, leaving the father and one child, Ida, now Mrs. James Crabb. In August of 1883 he was married to Mrs. Kate Hilder, of Brownstown. Three daughters came to bless their home and to comfort the father throughout his long affliction. He leaves a devoted wife, four children, one brother and a host of friends to mourn his death. William Claycamp was an exemplary citizen and was greatly esteemed by his neighbors and friends.

To Escape Whitecaps.

Williamsport, Ind., Sept. 17.—Magdalena Elliott, sixteen years old, was found dead in the woods near Rainsville, this county. She had been shot in the mouth with a 32-caliber revolver, and it is thought to be a case of suicide. Miss Elliott will be remembered as the girl who cut off her hair, donned boy's clothes and ran away to Danville, Ills., last January, giving as her reason that she was abused at home. After she was brought back the neighbors accused her father of having driven her from home. Whitecap notices were frequently left on his doorstep. A ten-page letter, seemingly written by herself, was found in her slipper. In it she stated that she was going to kill herself because of the persecution she and her father had suffered at the hands of the neighbors.

Indorsed By Purdue.

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 17.—Harry King, a local trick bicycle rider, is working on an apparatus which if successful will put Diavolo and his "loop-the-loop" feat in the shade. There will be two loops, the second smaller and standing lower than the first, and King will make his first descent from a 60-foot elevation. Mr. King has consulted with professors of engineering at Purdue and has shown them his design. They think the trick is feasible if King has enough nerve to perform the feat.

Stratton's Funeral.

Colorado Springs, Col., Sept. 17.—The remains of the late W. S. Stratton will lie in state in the Mining Exchange four hours this afternoon. The funeral services will be held at the Stratton home tomorrow morning and will be private. The interment at Evergreen cemetery will be conducted by the Masons in the afternoon, but only relatives, pall-bearers and close friends will accompany the body to the grave.

Body Cut In Two.

Goshen, Ind., Sept. 17.—James H. Hayden, a dwarf hunchback, thirty years of age, was thrown from a Lake Shore freight train and his body cut in two.

Ancient Trades Union.

Seven thousand years ago there were trades unions in Nineveh and Babylon, and so strict were their rules that in some cases the penalty of death was inflicted for infringing them. Each man's work was strictly defined, and even the number of hours that he was allowed to work was stated in the charter of his guild or union. Later exactly the same state of affairs existed in Pompeii, and inscriptions have been discovered stating specific appointments of officials to trades unions. The most powerful of these appears to have been that of the Fishermen's guild.
